

Sayanika Bhowmik

Student

I am a Computer Science Engineering student at Sikkim Manipal Institute Of Technology acquiring a 8.75 CGPA in my latest Semester. I devote complete honesty and punctuality to whatever task I am assigned. I have taken a keen interest in the field of UI/UX, Web Development and Artificial Intelligence. I have also showcased my leadership and management qualities by hosting multiple events throughout college and I consider myself a people's person with a pleasant disposition.
